model for those around me.

16) Imagine That You Have Been Selected As An Influential Person Of Country For A Week. What Do You Plan To Do For The Country In Just A Week?

Of course, there is no doubt that my main focus would be the well-being of the children in my country. I would make sure they all have access to quality education, the best teachers, the best tools, and the best infrastructure. I would also make sure that the future generation is taught how to be a good citizen, how to be kind to others and how to protect our planet. Educating the children is the most useful way to ensure societal change for the future. It could help get ease problems like inequality, mental illnesses, environmental issues, and many more.

17) Who Is The Most Inspiring Person In Your Life?

The most inspiring person in my life is my father. He came from a very poor family which abandoned him as an infant. His life was never easy, and he almost died a number of times due to chronic kidney issues. But he never let that slow him down. He made his own loving family with his mom and me. He always took great care of us and faced his own demons by being the best version of himself. For me, he is a hero, and I thank God that he is with us every day!

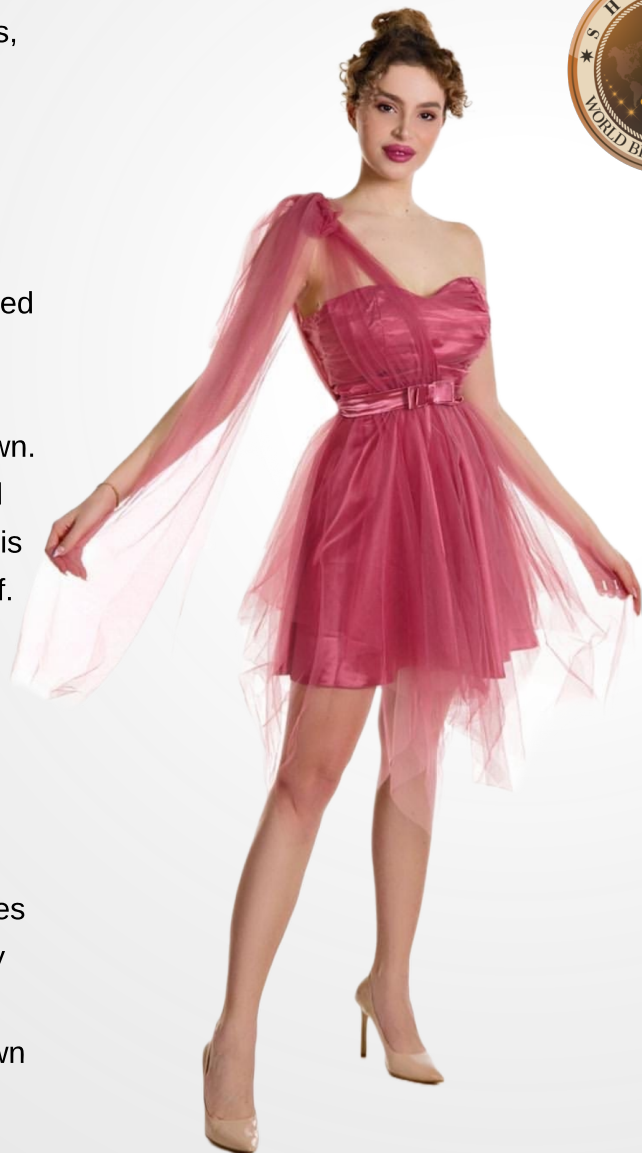

18) What Has Been Your Biggest Challenge And How Did You Overcome It?

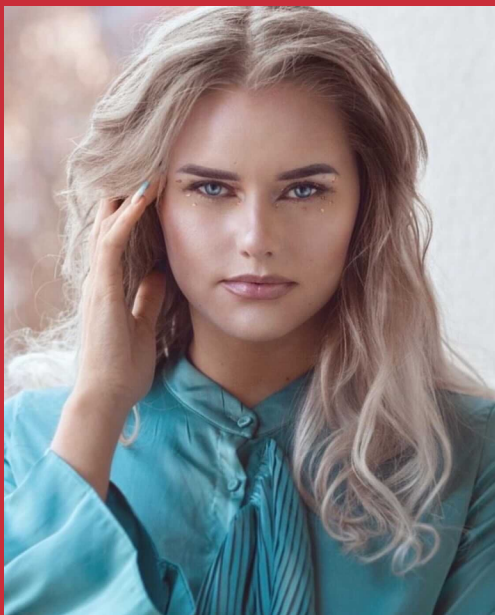

I would say the biggest challenge in my life has been having to be strong for my family when times were hard. From a young age, I was there for my parents, especially when my father was hospitalized. It was always hard not to break down in these situations, but I felt like I had to be there for everyone to make sure we get through the rough times together.

19) Any Personal Message That You Would Like To Share

My message to everyone is to believe in themselves and get out of their comfort zone. As someone who has struggled with mental health, especially anxiety, participating in pageants has been a great way to build my self-confidence. I've gained the courage to speak up and discuss the issues I'm most interested in. Pursue your dreams because you are more than capable of getting over adversities!

 PORTFOLIO

13) Brief Story – What Got You Where You Are Today?

What got me here today is the support of my friends and family. Not only have they given me the opportunities to be able to extend my career, but they have also supported me in all the choices I have made. I also want to mention how I am so proud of myself for being able to be where I am today and for the choices I am going to make in the future. It's important you don't forget to be proud and cherish your achievements.

14) Any Personal Message That You Would Like To Share

This may sound cheesy but as long as you put yourself out there and act on your dreams and thoughts you can make so much possible that you never expected. Never look down on yourself and think you're not good enough. The worst thing you could get is a no, whether it's about a date or a job interview. You'll have more regret over the things you never did than the things you acted on. And be kind to one another.

RENÉ COURNOYER
CANADIAN GYMNAST

The more time I was training with high-level athletes, the more I wanted to become like them. In 2013, I started competing in the junior category and became a national champion in my first competition in that category. The national coach suggested that I could transfer with the seniors the same year to challenge me, even if I was only 15 years old at that time. This is the hardest transition any gymnast has to overcome, and a lot of people were expecting me to fail and crumble under the pressure, but the exact opposite happened, I rose to the challenge and qualified for every event but one at our national championships.

In 2016, Canada didn't qualify a team and only one athlete was allowed to go to the Olympics, I was second and the dream passed me by even if I was this close to making it. I did the only thing I could; I trained twice as hard and led the following four years as the Canadian leader. Through injuries, challenges, setbacks, and even a pandemic, I finally qualified for the 2020 Olympic Games in Tokyo and achieved my dream as the only Canadian gymnast at these games. It was a life-changing experience, but also the confirmation that everything I believed in was true. When surrounded by the right people, with a will of steel and countless efforts, anything is possible.

13) Imagine That You Have Been Selected As An Influential Person Of Country For a Week. What Do You Plan To Do For The Country In Just a Week?

Difficult question. I think one person can't change a lot in a big country in a week. But we always can start from ourselves and that's the most important thing in this life. Our pattern and our energy sometimes can do much more than try to change others. From one week I can make a new trend of kindness and assistance to the neediest segments of the population.

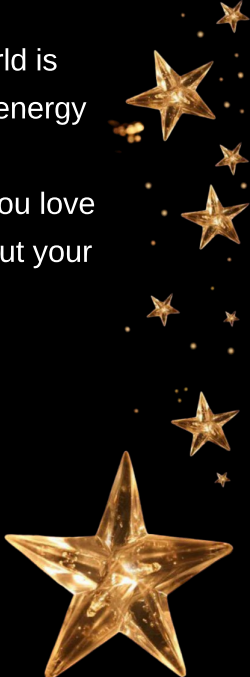

14) What Got You Where You Are Today?

Honestly, I had a difficult situation in my life but probably like most of the people do. I started my life, not from 0, I started from a big minus. I helped my family really a lot. Now I do everything to reach my goals and dreams. I sew my own clothing line. I paint pictures with oil. I got 3 professions: an investor financier, a designer, and finally a model. I participated in one of the biggest and most famous beauty competitions in the world Miss Intercontinental. I had previously won a lot of Olympiads and competitions in many subjects.

15) Any Personal Message That You Would Like To Share

Not always we can change situations or people around us. We should do what we can, start from ourselves. Just love yourself and the people around you because everything in this world is about energy. Good energy and kindness are so important. Do what you love and never forget about your dreams.

DREAM VACATIONS

📍 SPAIN

MADRID

Madrid is the capital of Spain and the country's top tourist city. This is a modern and noisy metropolis, located almost in the center of the Iberian Peninsula. Madrid is a medium-sized city in the European Union. It buzzes like a disturbed beehive and the consciousness of an ebullient life. The energy and atmosphere of the city and its cultural and artistic heritage are the main reasons for its popularity.

Puerta Del Sol

Puerta del Sol is the central square of Madrid, located at the crossroads of eight streets. Walk down the Calle Mayor to Puerta del Sol and pay attention to the sign "zero kilometer" on the pavement in front of the royal building of Casa de Correos (now the headquarters of the regional government), which marks the official center of Spain. The statue of a bear hugging a strawberry tree is a symbol of Madrid.

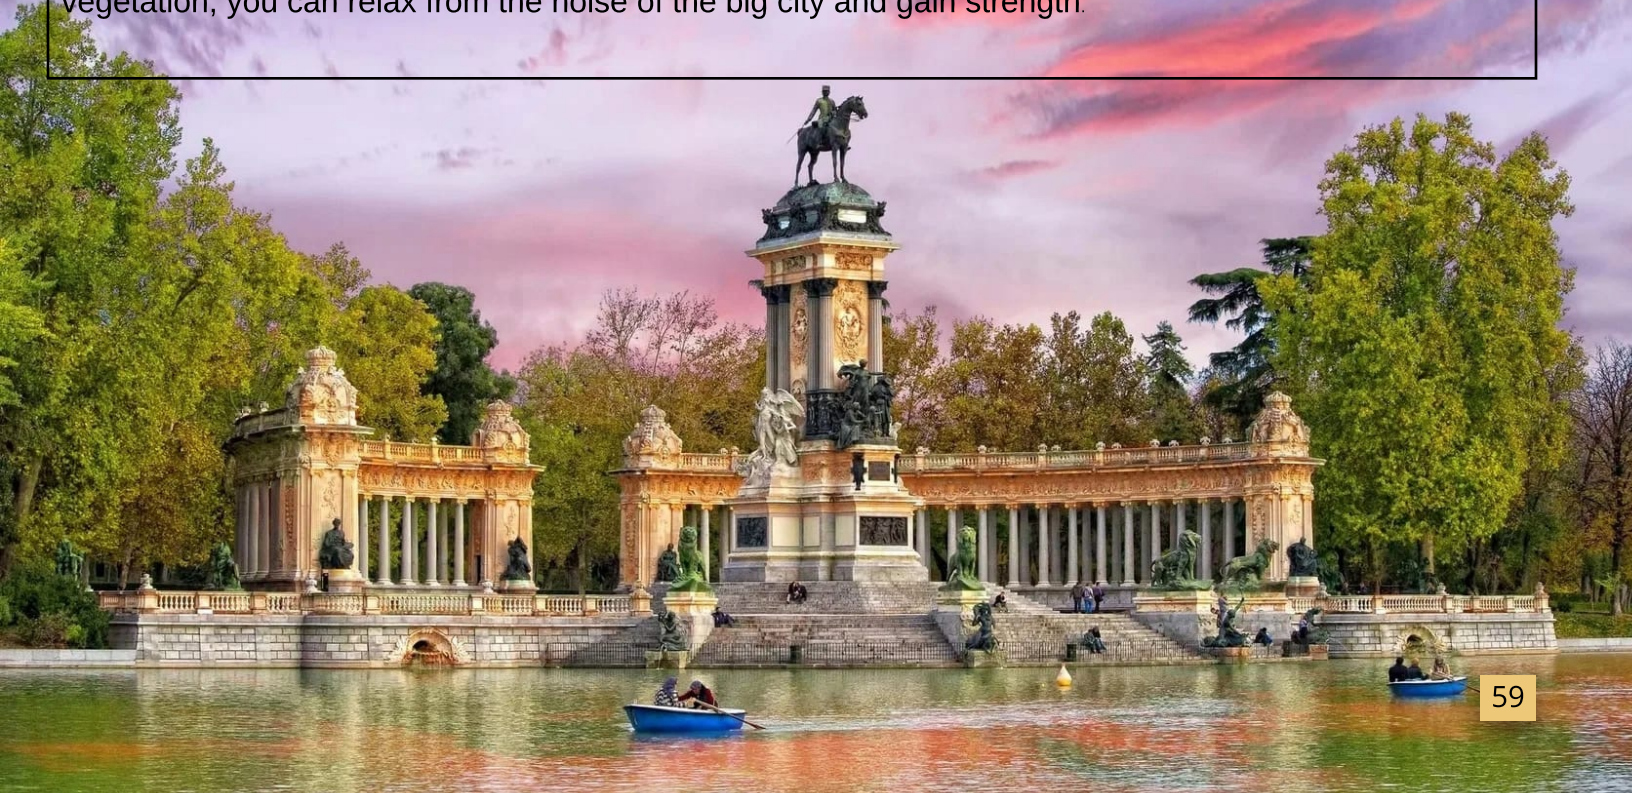

Temple Of Debog

This is an Egyptian temple in the very center of Madrid. The temple was saved from the rising waters of Lake Nasser after Egyptian President Gamal Abdel Nasser began construction on the Aswan hydroelectric facility. Since 1968, the temple has been transported block by block to Spain as a token of gratitude to the Spanish archaeologists from the UNESCO team, who worked to save the cultural monuments of Egypt, which were threatened with destruction as a result of flooding.

Park El Retiro

The lush gardens of El Retiro are amongst the best urban gardens in Europe. Walking among its marble monuments, landscaped lawns, rare picturesque buildings (especially the Palacio de Cristal) and dense vegetation, you can relax from the noise of the big city and gain strength.

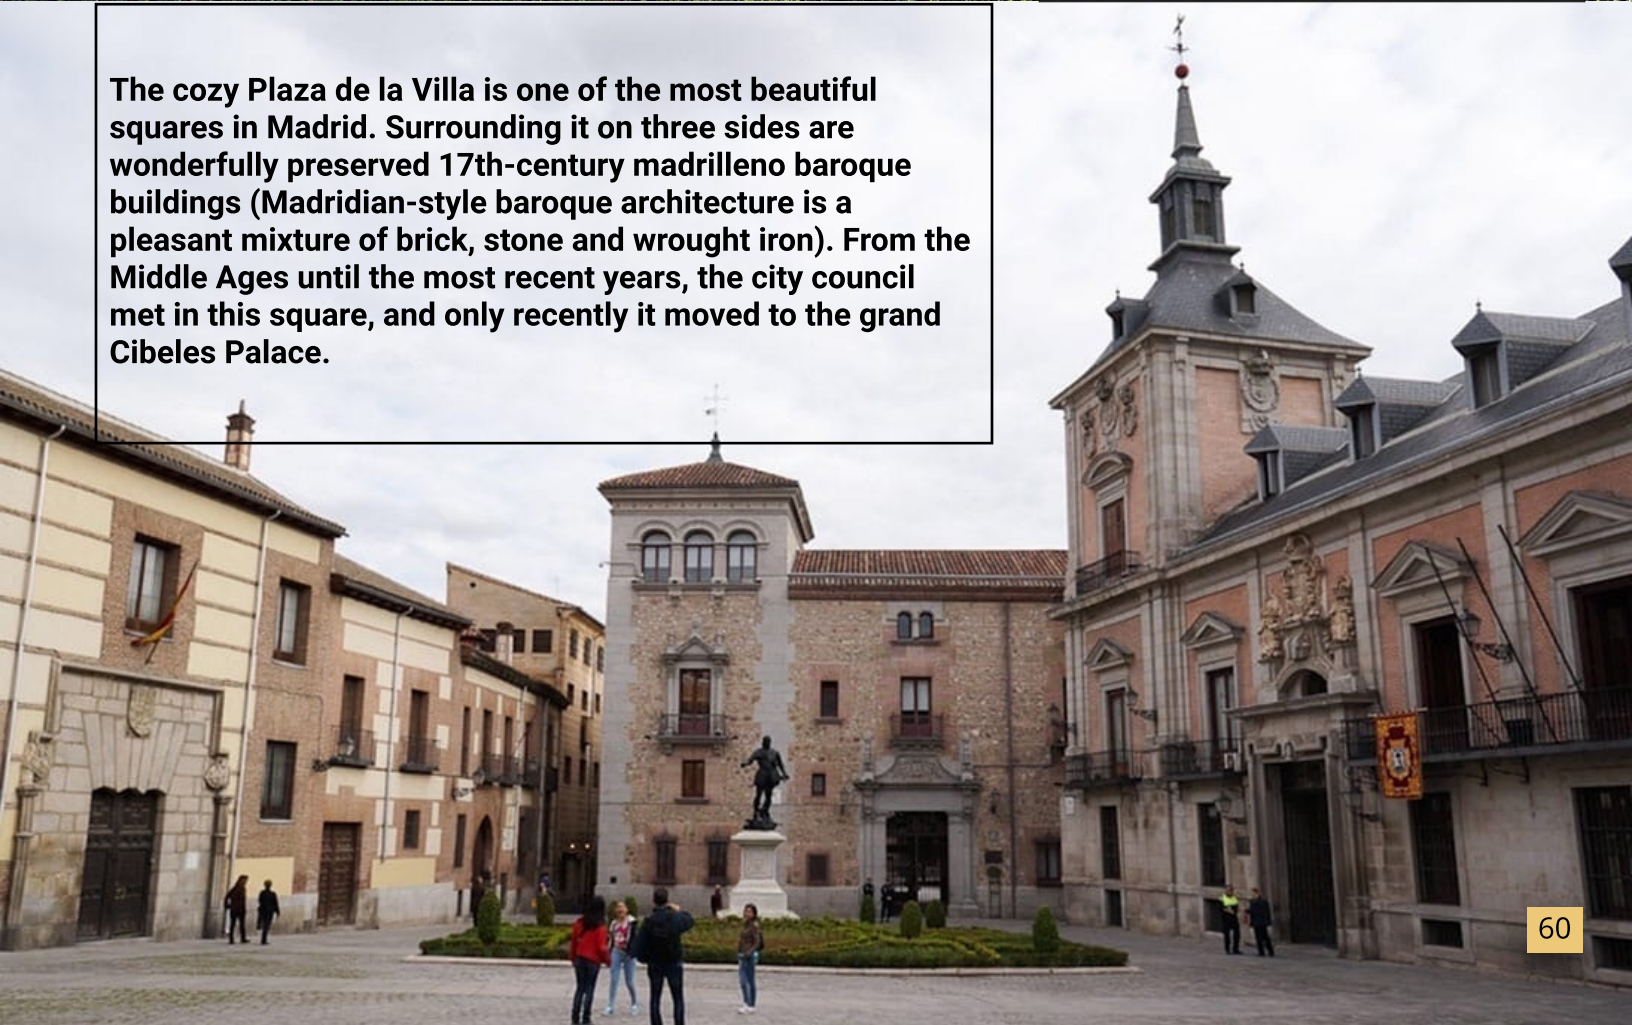

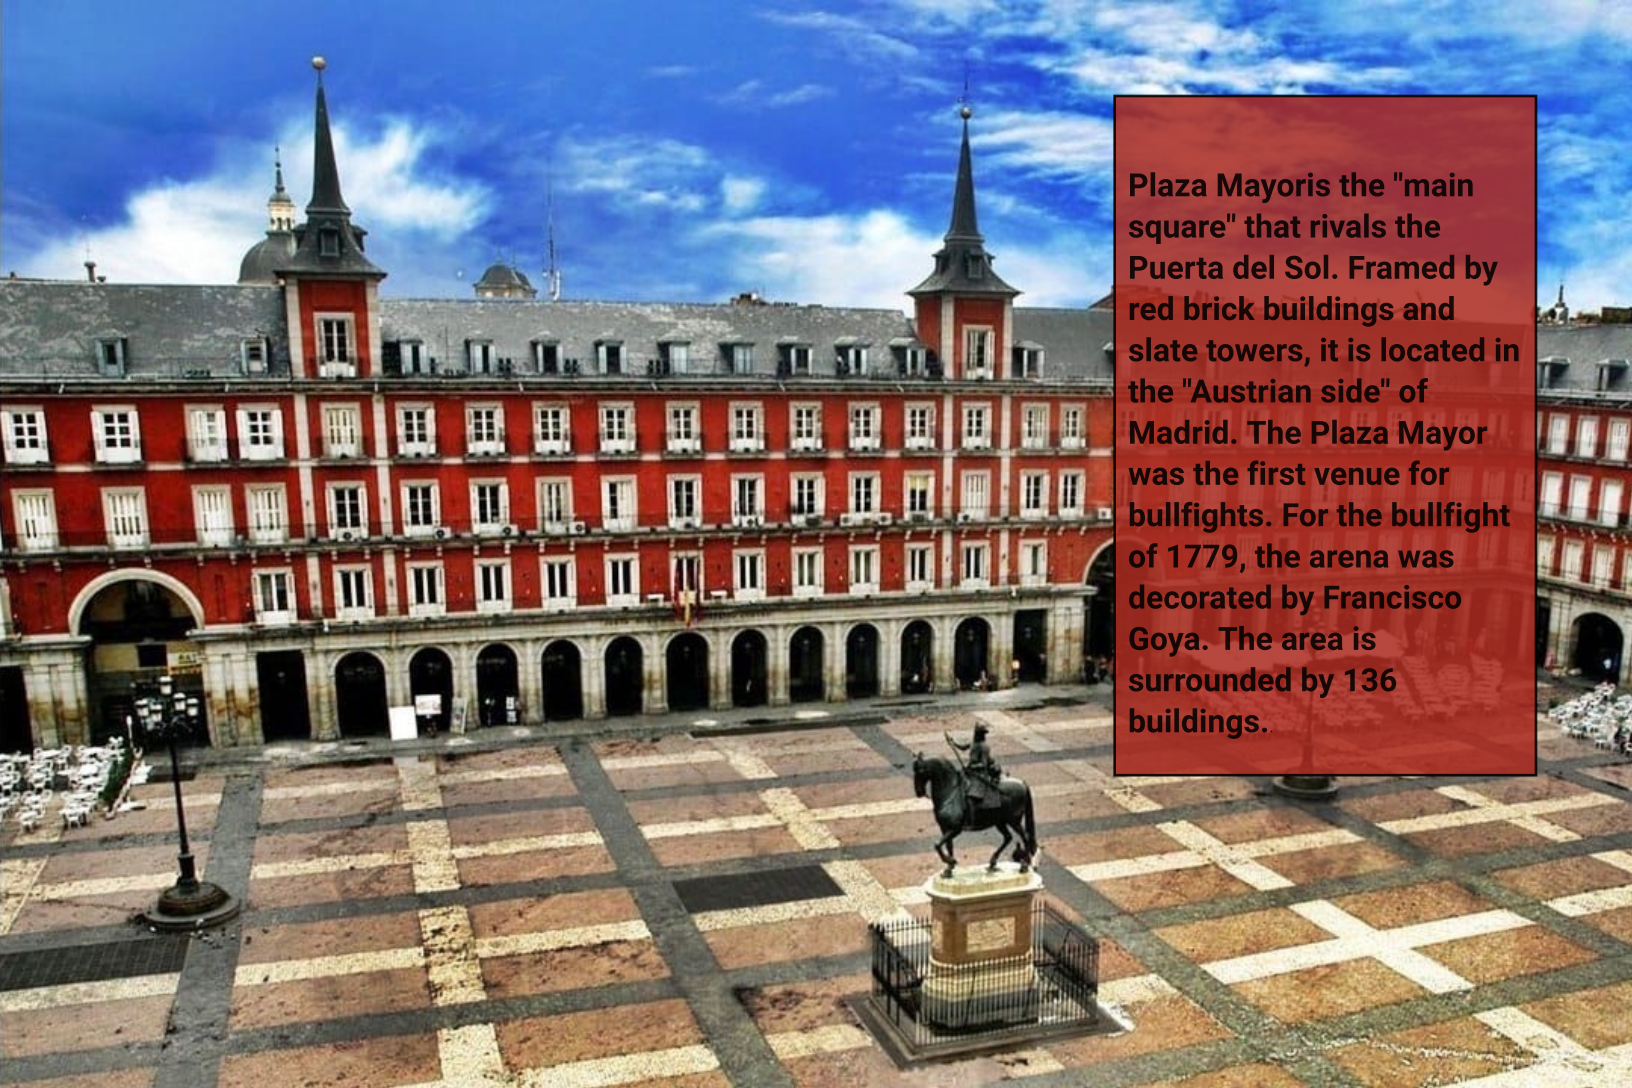

Royal Palace

The palace impresses with its meticulous interior decoration: the rococo throne room, frescoes by Italian masters, including Caravaggio, Flemish tapestries, a unique collection of Stradivari violins, a porcelain room, and an armory - you can spend half a day looking at the details of the decoration.

The cozy Plaza de la Villa is one of the most beautiful squares in Madrid. Surrounding it on three sides are wonderfully preserved 17th-century madrilleno baroque buildings (Madridian-style baroque architecture is a pleasant mixture of brick, stone and wrought iron). From the Middle Ages until the most recent years, the city council met in this square, and only recently it moved to the grand Cibeles Palace.

Plaza Mayor is the "main square" that rivals the Puerta del Sol. Framed by red brick buildings and slate towers, it is located in the "Austrian side" of Madrid. The Plaza Mayor was the first venue for bullfights. For the bullfight of 1779, the arena was decorated by Francisco Goya. The area is surrounded by 136 buildings.

Liria Palace is the residence of the Dukes of Alba, built in neoclassical style. Walk through the halls to admire the paintings of many great masters, including Goya, Velázquez, El Greco, Rubens, Titian, and Brueghel. In addition to the works of art, in the Liria Palace you can get acquainted with the history of eminent Spanish families. And there is an impressive collection of sculptures, tapestries, furniture, prints, books, and porcelain.

Quick & Confidential STD Screening At UrgentWay

UrgentWay offers quick, accurate, comfortable, and affordable STD screening. Our highly trained staff ensures your comfort before starting STD screening.

Should I Get Tested For STD?

In most cases, STD are asymptomatic. Testing is the only way to know for sure if you have an STD.

I Think I Have STD Symptoms. Should I get Tested?

If you had sexual contact with another person and noticed any signs of an STD, talk to your doctor about getting tested. The symptoms of STD may come and go over time, but that doesn't mean the STD are gone. Usually, STD symptoms are so mild that they don't bother you, but you should still see your doctor.

Different STD have different symptoms. Signs of sexually transmitted diseases include:

- Sores or bumps on and around the genitals, thighs, or buttocks
- Strange discharge from the vagina or penis
- Burning sensation when urinating and / or frequent urination
- Itching, pain, irritation, and / or swelling of the penis, vagina, vulva, or anus
- Flu-like symptoms such as fever, body aches, swollen glands, and fatigue

All of these symptoms can be caused by things that are not sexually transmitted. So, getting tested is the only way to know for sure what's going on. Your doctor will help you figure out what kinds of testing or treatment you may need.

Which Sexually Transmitted Diseases (STD) Does UrgentWay Provide Screening For?

- Herpes
- HPV (warts)
- Gonorrhea
- Chlamydia
- HIV/AIDS

Nutritionist Tips: How To Stop Stress Eating

If you are one of those who runs to the refrigerator while preparing for exams or with problems in their personal lives, seeks salvation in eating their favorite sweets and pizza, then any crisis threatens you with extra pounds. But we hasten to reassure you - this can be fixed.

EAT ON SCHEDULE

Plan your meal schedule. For example: breakfast at 8, lunch at 13, and dinner at 19. This will allow the body to form a clear understanding of when to eat and how much. And, remember that these should be full meals. The most diverse and with a clean composition. Not coffee and chocolate for lunch, but normal healthy food!

EAT FULL AND DON'T TRY TO EAT BY THE PIECE

Remember that in the morning it's easier to control yourself, and by the evening the brain turns off the feeling of fullness so that you get everything that you didn't eat during the day. Therefore, buns, sweets, and pizza fly into the mouth. The brain does not care that you are on a healthy lifestyle. It will be difficult for you to control the amount, because when the body is in short supply, the brain thinks: "I'd rather eat a lot, but I'll get what I need". If you don't know how to make a diet, then refer to the Harvard Healthy Eating Plate: 1/2 of your meal is vegetables and fruits, 1/4 whole and unrefined grains: barley, quinoa, oatmeal, buckwheat, whole wheat pasta, etc., and 1/4 protein and fats: fish, chicken, beans, nuts, etc. Oils: olive, corn, rapeseed, sunflower, peanut, etc.

SEPARATE HUNGER FROM STRESS

Every time you want to eat something unplanned, ask yourself the question: "How do I feel right now? Is it really hunger or am I just really anxious?" You should not seize feelings if you have such a habit. Food = reward? Change dominant. Find another way to please yourself. Call a friend, do exercises, pet a cat, anything, but just don't associate a good mood with sweet food :)

DO YOU WANT SWEETS? EAT NATURAL

Banana instead of Snickers. Instead of sweets - dried mango or apples. And if you are stressed all day, then the last meal should be no later than four hours before bedtime. It is important not to burden the body before bedtime. Allow food to be digested normally during wakefulness, and at night to spend energy on recovery.

Fashion - Winter 2022

Quilting

The quilting trend encourages us to rediscover its potential, from classics that are timeless to chic, modern must-haves. These pieces are characterized by intricate patterns and artistic motifs. There are many options for sartorial inspiration, including colorful and patchwork jackets and bags as well as gorgeous 70's-inspired shorts that look like they just came out of Granny's basement.

Furs And Shearling

They have a completely different vibe. It is a posh fabric that also holds the title of being the warmest. Although furs and shearling are not new to the fashion scene in winter, it is safe to say that they have gained a lot of utility in this season's winter. These versatile staples are smart and stylish. They also make a great addition to any wardrobe. You can add furry touches to your winter style with a variety of fur coats, fur leather jackets, and even shearling or furry scarves.

Leather

All leather things are celebrated when it comes to the 2022 winter trends. Everything is modern and elegant, from the highly-coveted leather biker jackets which have been a staple for decades to leather bags, belts, and shoes.

Knitted Jump-Suits

These are adorable and comfortable and allow you to do so many things with them. They can be worn with chunky shoes or paired with a scarf and muffler. Knitted jump-suits are versatile enough to suit a variety of outfits. They are so versatile, warm, and practical that they are hard to resist. You can accentuate a grey jumpsuit with a bomber jacket, for both men and women. There are many other fashionable combinations that you can make with this basic piece.

Over Sized Puffer And Parka Jackets

The look of oversize has never been so elegant and chic. Over sized puffer jackets and parkas have been a big winter trend. They can protect you from the cold, but also help you look your best by helping you layer the right clothes. They're a reliable winter companion for many and they are rightly so.

Pleated and Plaid Skirts

Plaid and pleated skirts, both vintage and modern, are in fashion. These trendy innovative skirts add a lot to your style and fashion. Plaid and pleated skirts are great for styling unexpected events. You can put it on a leather jacket or puffer coat, and you don't have to worry about the cold. Your outerwear will keep you covered.

CPA Clinics Receives 2022 Best of Westbury Award

Westbury Award Program Honors the Achievement

WESTBURY October 2, 2022 -- CPA Clinics has been selected for the 2022 Best of Westbury Award in the Consultant category by the Westbury Award Program.

Each year, the Westbury Award Program identifies companies that we believe have achieved exceptional marketing success in their local community and business category. These are local companies that enhance the positive image of small business through service to their customers and our community. These exceptional companies help make the Westbury area a great place to live, work and play.

Various sources of information were gathered and analyzed to choose the winners in each category. The 2022 Westbury Award Program focuses on quality, not quantity. Winners are determined based on the information gathered both internally by the Westbury Award Program and data provided by third parties.

About Westbury Award Program

The Westbury Award Program is an annual awards program honoring the achievements and accomplishments of local businesses throughout the Westbury area. Recognition is given to those companies that have shown the ability to use their best practices and implemented programs to generate competitive advantages and long-term value.

The Westbury Award Program was established to recognize the best of local businesses in our community. Our organization works exclusively with local business owners, trade groups, professional associations and other business advertising and marketing groups. Our mission is to recognize the small business community's contributions to the U.S. economy.
